West Coast Multihulls and Corsair Marine present:
San Diego Winter Series - Cortez Racing Association

This classic San Diego racing series will be held on three dates, every other Saturday starting February 11, 2012. There will be a separate class and start for all Corsair trimarans that enter. "This is an opportunity for Corsair owners throughout Southern California to get back into the racing scene," says WCM President Kurt Jerman. "Owners are excited, and we are too, to get a fleet of performance trimarans out on the bay to put on a show."

Please join us to make this a competitive and fun event for Corsair sailors and all!

When: February 11
February 25
March 10

Where: San Diego Bay
Who: Cortez Racing Association (<http://www.cortezracing.com/>)
